

Global Education Initiative Scholarship

Funded by the Right of Way International Education Foundation (RWIEF)

Purpose:

The purpose and intent of the Scholarship is to provide one $2,500 scholarship to each of IRWA's active chartered Chapters to offer as an incentive to Chapter members to seek out IRWA course curriculum opportunities. Scholarship funds (not to exceed $180,000) so awarded must be used within two (2) years from July 1, 2025. All courses taken can be done so either in person, on demand or virtually. Region officers or International Relations Committee Chair can award that unused scholarship to another chapter in the region where there is more than one qualified candidate.

Eligibility:

Scholarship applicants must be active IRWA members in good standing for at least two years. Scholarship funding can only be used toward the registration fee for eligible courses by June 30, 2027.

Schedule:

Applications may be submitted to the IRWA website beginning January 15, 2025. The deadline for the application is April 1, 2025. Grantees will be notified by June 1, 2025 and the award will begin on July 1, 2025.

Distribution:

Each Region Selection Committee will consist of the Region Chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary. Each Committee will select one qualified recipient from each Chapter of its respective Region.
