Welcome to the IRWA Certification Program!

IRWA certification is a journey and a destination. For a right of way professional like yourself, your certification validates your skills and demonstrates your proficiency in your chosen discipline. The R/W-SEC Certification Program is a structured process designed to provide you with the knowledge and tools that will help you advance in your profession.

Stay Ahead of the Curve

Today's marketplace is complex and constantly changing. Therefore, individuals and businesses must stay ahead of the curve to be marketable and proficient in the right of way business. You can rely on an IRWA certification to develop a solid, competitive advantage so you and your company for whatever lies ahead can remain ahead of that curve.

The Only Name That Counts

IRWA supports high quality adult education and a professional standard of excellence. An IRWA certification includes a rigorous qualifying process that will work to differentiate you from other right of way professionals. The IRWA's high academic standards are internationally recognized and respected by customers, businesses, and colleagues across the right of way disciplines.

The Right Stuff

Companies whose employees are IRWA certified report impressive performance results and have often won business in competitive situations. Companies have also indicated their certified professionals often make better employees because these individuals exhibited higher productivity, reduced learning curves, increased technical competencies, limited error rate, and elevated job satisfaction.

Individual Benefits

In addition to gaining new skills, enhancing your knowledge base and adding to your list of credentials, you can expect to attain a wide range of workplace benefits. These benefits may be in the form of peer recognition or demonstrated financially through a promotion, pay raise or other performance benefits.

Benefits to Employer

Employers who support staff continuing education can expect significant benefits, including higher employee retention, increased productivity and a boost in employee morale and confidence. Retaining experienced staff is an enormous competitive advantage for any employer.

Overview: How the Program Works and Purpose of this Guidebook

This program guide is your simplified reference, which identifies your education requirements to obtain your certification. Many of the forms as well as links to the forms on the IRWA website you will need along the way are included in this guidebook.

To get started, please read the requirements outlined in this program guide. If your experience appears to qualify, submit your candidacy declaration to IRWA Headquarters (HQs). International Right of Way (R/W) Certification Program

What is a Right of Way Certification?

The Right of Way (R/W) Certification is granted to candidates who have achieved professional status through experience, education and examination in a single right of way discipline.

Earning this certification demonstrates an unparalleled achievement in a single discipline and reinforces a standard of excellence. The International Right of Way Association offers certification in the following 6 disciplines*:

Discipline	R/W Certification
Appraisal	R/W-AC
Asset Management	R/W-AMC
Negotiation/Acquisition	R/W-NAC
Relocation Assistance	R/W-RAC
Surveying/Engineering	R/W-SEC
Uniform Act	R/W-URAC

*Candidates can only become certified in 2 disciplines until the SR/WA designation is earned.

What are the prerequisites for the R/W-SEC Certification?

Any member involved in the right of way profession is eligible to become a candidate. A candidate must have a minimum of 8 years of relevant surveying or engineering experience within the last 10 years and meet the coursework and exam requirements. Alternatively, if a candidate holds professional licensure in surveying or engineering, the experience requirement is a minimum of 3 years of relevant surveying and engineering experience within the last 5 years.

What happens after the R/W Certification is earned?

The R/W Certification expands employment opportunities, increases salary potential, boosts chances for career advancement and demonstrates professional commitment.

Employers benefit from the R/W Certification, too. Most employers recognize the roles that professional development and continuing education play and encourage their staff to pursue such things. The R/W Certification helps employers to identify and reward employees with proven initiative, dedication and knowledge. It helps to create a strong professional foundation and training ladder. The Certification enhances employee skills through multidiscipline training and examination. It also assures continuous educational updates through recertification.

Please contact Credentialing Staff for any questions about the Certification program. 310.538.0233, Ext. 123 or education@irwaonline.org.

International Right of Way (R/W) Certification Program

Right of Way Professional Experience, Course, and Exam Requirements

Surveying/Engineering Experience:

Principal practice in professional surveying and/or engineering services must comply with the applicable jurisdiction's regulatory requirements. Experience must be provided that includes conducting and understanding surveying and engineering of right of way projects. The following are examples of what can be used to meet the experience requirements:

1. Conducting calculations for engineering designs, land surveys, and right of way plans.
2. Understanding of engineering maps, survey maps, construction plans, and right of way plans.
3. Use surveying equipment to measure and determine property boundaries.
4. Research title, deeds, and land related documents to determine property boundaries.
5. Prepare property descriptions, survey maps, and right of way plans.
6. Staking and field layout of engineering designs, roadways, and utilities.

IRWA Coursework Requirements

To obtain the R/W Certification, the candidate must successfully complete a coursework requirement that consists of both core courses and elective courses. The coursework requirement is different for each of the 6 disciplines.

Challenging a Course

If the candidates feel that they have sufficient professional experience and knowledge in a certain discipline, they can challenge a core course. To do this, they must complete and submit the Course Challenge Request form, along with the challenge fee, and then successfully complete the exam for that course. If the candidate does not pass the exam, the candidate may not challenge the course again and must attend the class and successfully pass the exam to receive credit.

The following core course may be challenged:

- C-800 – Principles of Real Estate Law
- C-900 – Principles of Real Estate Engineering

Capstone Examination Requirements

The candidate must fulfill the capstone examination* requirement for the applied-for discipline certification.

An approved candidate can take the capstone examination anytime within their 5-year candidacy period.

To take an exam, the candidate must complete and submit, along with the appropriate exam fee(s), the Exam Request form.

* Capstone exam is valid for 5 years from the "pass" date

International Right of Way (R/W) Certification Program

R/W Recertification

Certified individuals holding a R/W Certification must recertify every 5 years. To recertify, certified individuals must accumulate the required credit within a 5-year period from the date of receipt of the Certification or from the date of the previous recertification. Failure to recertify will result in the loss of the certified individual's certification.

Recertification Requirements

Thirty-two credit units must be earned through attending (classroom or online) or instructing courses or seminars with right of way and real estate related topics. Of these 32 credit units, a minimum of 8 must be earned by attendance as a participant or instructor in any 200, 800 or 900 course series and 8 credit units must be earned through meeting the Ethics Course requirement.*

R/W Certification designees can receive up to 16 credit units of recertification credit for paid attendance at IRWA's Annual International Education Conference.

*R/W certified individuals taking class for recertification credit are not required to take the course exam. However, participants taking an IRWA course for CE or other type of credit, for license renewal or other purposes are required to take the course exam. Exams must be taken with all online courses to earn recertification credit.

R/W Certification Inactive Status (Parked Status)

R/W Certified individuals can retain their right to the R/W Certification during an inactive period, when they are not employed in or otherwise involved with the right of way profession. A R/W Certified individual may request the inactive status as follows:

1. Submit a letter, along with the processing fee requesting the R/W Certification be held in an inactive status and acknowledge that during such period, the R/W Certification may not be used*
2. During each year the R/W certification is maintained in an inactive status, an annual fee shall be assessed for maintenance of the R/W Certification. The Annual fee shall entitle the certified individual to receive the IRWA magazine.

To apply for inactive status, certification must be current. Inactive status may not be applied for if recertification has expired.*

International Right of Way (R/W) Certification Program

R/W Certification Inactive Status (Reinstatement)

When the certified individual is ready to re-establish their active status, the process is as follows:

1. Submit a letter requesting to re-establish the active status of the R/W Certification, including a reinstatement fee.
2. Complete current recertification requirements for the R/W Certification. (Recertification must be completed within what remains of the original R/W Certification 5 year period from the time the inactive status was entered into).
3. Comply with any current recertification or other requirements as may be established by the Credentialing Committee.

Applying for Award of Recertification Credit for a Non-IRWA Course – no longer required effective July 1, 2017

In order to be awarded R/W recertification credit, the subject matter of a non-IRWA course must be consistent with current Right of Way principles and practices, and will enhance the Right of Way practitioner in the fields of:

1. Appraisal.
2. Communication/Negotiations.
3. Engineering.
4. Environment.
5. Management/Supervision.
6. Relocation Assistance.
7. Property Management.
8. Real Estate Law.
9. Surveying/Engineering.

Course content must cover a minimum of 70% of IRWA subject matter to be awarded R/W Certification Program recertification credit.

Appeals

If recertification credit is not granted for a non-IRWA course, you may consider the following appeal process:

1. Applicant forwards a Letter of Appeal to IRWA HQs within 30 days of receipt of notification.
2. HQs will forward request form to the Credentialing Committee for full review.
3. Credentialing Committee review and then advises HQs of approval/disapproval.

Right of Way Certification Program R/W-SEC Surveying & Engineering Certification Program Recertification

International Right of Way Certification (R/W) Recertification

Why do R/W professionals need to recertify?

The International Right of Way Association believes that all professionals holding the R/W Certification must continue their personal and professional development through a combination of continued work experience and continuing education. Therefore, the IRWA requires all R/W individuals to recertify every 5 years to maintain their professional certification.

What is required to recertify?

The R/W recertification requirements consist of earning 32 credit units by attending (classroom or online) or instructing courses or seminars with right of way and real estate related topics. Of these 32 credit units, a minimum of 8 must be earned by course attendance as a participant or instructor in any 200, 800 or 900 course series and 8 credit units must be earned through meeting the Ethics Course requirement.

C-102 – Elevating Your Ethical Awareness will only apply towards the ethics requirement.

R/W Certification designees may receive up to 16 credit units for paid attendance at IRWA's International Educational Conference.

IRWA Chapter/Region seminars, symposiums, etc. and non-IRWA courses will no longer need to be submitted to Headquarters or the Credentialing Committee for approval.

Certificate or proof of attendance/completion must be kept in designee's records and must only be submitted to HQs as supporting documentation along with the recertification application.

The recertification period is 5 years from the initial certification and applications will be accepted by HQs up to 1 year before the due date.

R/W Certification designees taking an IRWA course for recertification credit are not required to take the course exam.* However, participants taking an IRWA course for CE or other type of credit, for license renewal or other purposes are required to take the course exam.

 Exams must be taken for any online course or seminar to obtain recertification credit.*
